

It is inconceivable to me that anyone can believe that the public interest will be served by allowing further consolidation of media ownership. You have a sworn duty to serve the public interest. If that is not your primary duty, what can it possibly be?